

The OSCE Chairman-in-Office, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia Ivica Dacic spoke yesterday in Banja Luka with President of the Republic of Srpska Milorad Dodik.

Dacic and Dodik condemned the terrorist attack on the police station in Zvornik, which resulted in killing one and wounding two police officers, and stated that at this moment it was extremely important to maintain peace and security.

It was assessed that the Republic of Srpska had been fostering good cooperation with the OSCE for years and hopes were expressed that this cooperation would continue in the future.

President of the Republic of Srpska informed the OSCE Chairman-in-Office Dacic on other current political issues in the Republic of Srpska and BiH.

The meeting was attended by Head of the OSCE Mission to BiH Jonathan Moore, Prime Minister of the Republic of Srpska Zeljka Cvijanovic and Serbian Ambassador to BiH Stanimir Vukicevic.
