

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had talks today with the Ambassador of the Russian Federation, Aleksandar Cepurin regarding Serbia's activities as OSCE Chair.

Several issues were raised during the talks, particularly related to the situation in Ukraine and, accordingly, the engagement of the OSCE Special Monitoring Mission in Ukraine. Minister Dacic underlined that Serbia as OSCE Chair is making utmost efforts towards deescalation of the conflict and continuation of the political process.
