

The OSCE Chairperson-in-Office, Serbia's Foreign Minister Ivica Dačić, sharply condemned the recent spate of terrorist attacks which caused dozens of casualties among Turkish security personnel, and extended his condolences to the families of the victims.

"We hope tensions will de-escalate soon," said Dačić. "Countering terrorism requires everyone to mobilize. No state can counter it alone, and the OSCE will continue its efforts to foster co-operation at all levels."

Photo by: OSCE/Micky Kroell