

The State Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia, Dr. Snezana Jankovic, received today the Secretary-General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Italian Republic, Michele Valensise.

The talks were focused on issues related to bilateral relations, European integration of the Republic of Serbia, with particular emphasis on the effects of the First Inter-Governmental Conference on economic cooperation and regional relations.

State Secretary Jankovic thanked her interlocutor for the continued support of the Italian Republic extended to Serbia in its European integration process.