

Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivan Mrkic conferred today with the Ambassador of the Russian Federation in Belgrade, Alexander Chepurin.

Mutual satisfaction with the traditionally good relations between Serbia and Russia was expressed in a friendly talk.

Current issues concerning bilateral relations and cooperation within international organizations and forums where both countries are members were discussed in the meeting.