

Serbia declares three days of mourning in remembrance of flood victims

Wednesday, 21 May 2014.

The Government of the Republic of Serbia announced at today's session that 21st, 22nd and 23rd May 2014 would be days of national mourning for the death and suffering of a large number of its citizens affected by floods.