

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met today at a working lunch with the Prime Minister of the Republic of Slovenia, Alenka Bratušek, who is visiting Serbia.

The donor conference that Slovenia organizes jointly with France and the European Commission with the aim of raising funds earmarked for alleviating flood consequences in Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina, featured as the main topic of the talks.

Moreover, they discussed further development of bilateral relations, as well as regional and other current international issues.

Prime Minister Bratušek toured the flood-affected areas in Obrenovac prior to her meeting with Minister Dacic.

{youtube}nQj8cQ4tfn8{/youtube}