

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dačić attended today a working lunch with the Ambassadors from Nordic countries, hosted by the Finnish Ambassador in Belgrade, Pekka Orpana.

The lunch was attended by Ambassador of the Kingdom of Sweden Christer Asp, Ambassador of the Kingdom of Norway Nils Ragnar Kamsvag and Ambassador of the Kingdom of Denmark Michael Borg Hansen.

Minister Dačić discussed with the Nordic Ambassadors bilateral relations between the Republic of Serbia and the Scandinavian countries, European integration, regional relations and other current events concerning international relations.