

The purpose of the visit made by Albanian Prime Minister Edi Rama was to "make a step forward in relations between Serbia and Albania", First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic said for B92's Kaziprst (Index Finger). "Serbia has proven that it is a responsible country, while Rama's messages were not in line with the goals of the visit. The visit produced no results", Mr. Dacic assessed.
