

On the first day of his visit to Argentina, on November 25, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia Ivica Dacic received the recognition as “Guest of Honour of the City of Buenos Aires”, which was awarded him by First Vice President of Buenos Aires Parliament Christian Ritondo at a ceremony arranged for the occasion.

Thanking for the award, Serbian Foreign Minister pointed out that the long-term friendship and closeness bound the two countries and peoples together, as well as a high level of understanding in all matters of mutual interest. They discussed the possibilities of cooperation and town-twinning between Belgrade and Buenos Aires.

Minister Dacic invited representatives of Buenos Aires Parliament to visit Belgrade in the near future.
