

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic, who is on a visit to Athens, had talks today with Interior Minister of the Hellenic Republic Nikos Toskas concerning the Serbian nationals in Zakintos. Minister Toskas promised every assistance so that the full truth about the incident be disclosed.

Immediately after the talks, Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia to Athens Dusan Spasojevic and Consul Milan Vukosavljevic left for Zakintos to visit the detainees. The Consul will attend tomorrow's hearing of the Serbian detainees.
