

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met today in Rome with Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs Paolo Gentiloni. They emphasized at the meeting that bilateral relations between Serbia and Italy were excellent, adding there were opportunities for improvement of economic cooperation, particularly in the areas of infrastructure and transport. Minister Dacic and his Italian counterpart discussed the priorities of Serbian OSCE Chairmanship, holding the fourth joint meeting of the two Governments, and also the visit of the Italian Foreign Minister to Serbia.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic is today paying an official visit to Rome, at the invitation of Italian Foreign Minister Paolo Gentiloni. Minister Dacic will take part in a trilateral meeting of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of Serbia, Albania and Italy, including the participation of Ditmir Bushati, Albanian Foreign Minister.