

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today Deputy Foreign Minister of Bosnia and Herzegovina Ana Trisic Babic.

The two interlocutors exchanged views on current bilateral relations between the Republic of Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina as well as on the modalities of their promotion in the period ahead.

Among the topics discussed were regional cooperation and priorities of Serbian OSCE Chairmanship.

The two sides agreed that extremism was one of the most imposing problems that could impact the stability of the entire region, and that cooperation in this regard was an absolute priority.
