

Minister Dacic meets Ambassador Kirby

Friday, 13 February 2015.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of Serbia Ivica Dacic talked today with US Ambassador in Belgrade Michael Kirby.

The two interlocutors discussed the current bilateral issues and the activities of the Republic of Serbia as the country currently holding the OSCE Chairmanship.

Minister Dacic put a special emphasis on the readiness of the Republic of Serbia to invest maximum efforts, in the capacity as OSCE chairing country, in the framework of the forthcoming activities concerning the Minsk peace deal implementation.

Ambassador Kirby underlined the US full support to Serbia to that end.
