

The OSCE Chairman-in-Office, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic in today's telephone conversation with EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy Federica Mogherini discussed the situation in Ukraine.

Dacic informed Mogherini about the efforts being made by the OSCE to resolve the crisis, while Mogherini expressed readiness of the EU to help strengthen the OSCE Special Monitoring Mission (SMM) to Ukraine. It was agreed that the OSCE Chairman-in-Office and the EU's External Action Head would regularly exchange information on the developments in Ukraine.
