

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Kazakhstan to the Republic of Serbia Nurbah Rustem, with residence in Budapest.

In an open and cordial conversation, the two sides agreed that there were traditionally good and friendly relations between the two countries. The two interlocutors discussed the current issues of bilateral cooperation and highlighted the commitment to intensify relations in all areas of common interest.

During the meeting, the issue of the appointment of Honorary Consul of the Republic of Kazakhstan to Serbia was raised as well as the opening of the Office of the Republic of Kazakhstan to Belgrade.