

The Republic of Serbia strongly condemns the armed attack on the Bardo Museum in Tunis and fully supports the Tunisian Government in combating terrorism and any other form of extremism.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Government of the Republic of Serbia extend most sincere condolences over the tragic deaths of foreign tourists and Tunisian citizens, and express their solidarity with the friendly people of Tunisia exposed to such brutal attack of terrorist groups.