

Following the tragic accident that claimed the lives of seven people, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received messages of condolence from Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation Sergey Lavrov, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign and European Affairs of Croatia Vesna Pusic and Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of Slovenia Karl Erjavec.

The Serbian Foreign Minister was asked by his colleagues to convey condolences and their sincere support to the families and friends of the victims, in this difficult period after the tragic accident which took the lives of those who were rescuing the life of a newborn baby.