

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia Ivica Dacic and First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign and European Affairs of Croatia Vesna Pusic agreed in a telephone conversation that such incidents should not endanger the mutual aspiration to improve our relations and that it should be worked towards normalization of the situation in the interest of the future of the two countries and the region as a whole.

The common goal of Serbia and Croatia must be to resolve all outstanding issues from the past through dialogue and to define common interests and projects for the future.

Minister Pusic informed her Serbian counterpart that the Croatian Ambassador would be back in Belgrade on April 7, immediately after the Gregorian Easter holiday.
