

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic addressed a message of congratulations to Archbishop of Belgrade Stanislav Hocevar, dignitaries, clergy and citizens celebrating Easter according to the Gregorian Calendar.

“I wish you to celebrate this major Christian holiday with your families in peace, good health and joy.

I am confident that this holiday, as the symbol of celebration of life, will be the path to and the source of hope for the better future of all of us in Serbia. With joint efforts we can go a long way towards the prosperity of our country”, says Serbian Foreign Minister Ivica Dacic in his message”.
