

OSCE Chairperson-in-Office/ First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today in Belgrade Ambassador Radojko Bogojevic, Special Representative of the OSCE CiO for the Transdniestrian Settlement Process.

During the talks, the Special Representative informed the Chairman on the development of the situation in that region, the negotiation process in the “5+2” format, and further activities planned during Serbia’s Chairmanship.

The meeting of OSCE Chair Dacic and Special Representative Bogojevic followed immediately the special consultations in the “5+2” format on the Transdniestrian settlement, which took place in Vienna on 21 April 2015.