

Serbian First Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Ivica Dacic met today with Ambassador of the Kingdom of the Netherlands Laurent Louis Stokvis.

The Serbian Foreign Minister informed his interlocutor about the current issues in the framework of the Serbian OSCE Chairmanship, as well as about the European integration of our country.

They discussed current issues of bilateral relations, especially in terms of economic cooperation and cooperation in the context of the WWI centenary commemorations.

Ambassador Stokvis expressed the support of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to the EU integration of Serbia.