

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today Ambassador of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta in Belgrade, Alberto di Luca.

At the meeting, they considered issues related to bilateral relations, particularly addressing the implementation of the Agreement on health relief aid signed between the Republic of Serbia and the Sovereign Military Order of Malta.

Ambassador di Luca proposed the signing of a bilateral agreement on cooperation between the postal services of the Republic of Serbia and the Sovereign Military Order of Malta.

Minister Dacic commended the charitable work of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, stressing that we should continue developing our good relations.

The Head of Serbian diplomacy invited Albrecht Freiherr von Boeselager, the Grand Chancellor and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Sovereign Military Order, to visit Serbia.