

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today Choi Jong-moon, Special Envoy of the Foreign Minister of the Republic of Korea and Ambassador for Cultural and UNESCO Affairs.

Possibilities for the enhancement and intensification of cooperation between the Republic of Serbia and the Republic of Korea at the multilateral level, particularly within UNESCO and its World Heritage Committee, that both countries hold membership of, were being discussed in the meeting.

Moreover, both sides voiced their interest in further strengthening bilateral relations at the political and economic level, and in exchange of visits between the two countries' officials.
