

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met today with the Ambassadors of the United States, Great Britain and Italy, and Charges d’Affaires of France and the Federal Republic of Germany. In the context of regular exchange of views on current issues on the international scene, discussions were focused on the on-going political developments worldwide, with emphasis on issues of direct interest for the Republic of Serbia and the implementation of its foreign policy priorities.

The meeting discussed the situation in the region and the activities carried out by the Republic of Serbia as the OSCE Chair-in-Office.