

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic condemns in the strongest terms the attack on Serbian Prime Minister Aleksandar Vucic at the commemorative event in Potocari.

“The Serbian Prime Minister acted like a statesman, taking the decision to pay homage to the victims. This is another adverse consequence of the politicization of this issue that led to fresh divisions and hatred instead of reconciliation. It is an attack not only on Vucic, but also on Serbia as a whole and its politics of peace and regional cooperation”, the Serbian Foreign Minister stated.
