

“A protest was addressed to Hungary this evening regarding the attack on the RTS reporters by the Hungarian police, requesting the establishment of responsibility in order to prevent reoccurrence of such incidents.

Hungary and Serbia have friendly relations and every effort should be made to preserve them even in these crisis situations”, stated the Serbian Foreign Minister.