

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today a courtesy call from the newly-appointed Ambassador of Bosnia and Herzegovina to the Republic of Serbia, Lazar Mirkic.

The interlocutors have assessed that the relations between the two countries were good and on an ascending line. It was concluded that there was a common interest in the further improvement of overall cooperation, both political and economic.

Minister Dacic informed about the current problem with which Serbia has been faced in its relations with the Republic of Croatia regarding the migrant crisis, pointing out that Croatia had taken measures which were not in accordance with good neighbourly relations and international standards.

The Serbian Foreign Minister wished Ambassador Mirkic every success in the discharge of his responsible duties.
