

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a courtesy call from the new Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Slovak Republic to the Republic of Serbia, Dagmar Repčková.

In a cordial conversation, both sides assessed that the bilateral relations between the two countries were traditionally good and friendly. They emphasized satisfaction with the intensive and continuous political dialogue at all levels, as well as the necessity for further improving all aspects of bilateral cooperation, economic in particular.

Minister Dacic expressed gratitude for the support provided so far by the Slovak Republic to the European path of the Republic Serbia and conveyed the expectation that it would maintained in the future.

Ambassador Repčková positively assessed Serbia's activities as OSCE Chair. She conveyed the readiness of the Slovak Republic to continue to further develop intensive communication and cooperation with the Republic of Serbia in all fields.