

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today Indonesian Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, Abdurrahman M. Fachir.

Both sides shared the assessment that the relations between Serbia and Indonesia were traditionally friendly and characterised by no open issues.

In the talks, Minister Dacic expressed satisfaction with the overall cooperation between Serbia and Indonesia and voiced an interest in further strengthening the political dialogue and economic cooperation and overall increase of Indonesian investments in Serbia. He also expressed satisfaction with the cooperation within the bilateral interfaith dialogue between Serbia and Indonesia.

Indonesia's Vice Foreign Minister Abdurrahman M. Fachir backed promotion of bilateral political and economic relations, political dialogue, multilateral, parliamentary, cultural, educational, and all other forms of cooperation.
