

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a delegation of the Committee on European Affairs of the National Assembly of the French Republic.

In a cordial meeting, it was concluded that there was a mutual willingness to further improve the traditionally friendly relations between the two countries and continue the intensive political dialogue.

Minister Dacic thanked for the continued French support for the European integration process of Serbia, reminding that Serbia's EU membership was a priority of its foreign policy.

Members of the delegation of the Committee on European Affairs of the French National Assembly commended the efforts Serbia invested in the process of European integration and conveyed that we could continue to count on France's support in the process, which is of historic importance for Serbia. They welcomed the efforts made by Serbia in the promotion of cooperation and initiatives to maintain stability in the region.

The delegation particularly praised how Serbia treated migrants and expressed readiness to provide specific assistance in meeting the needs of these people.
