

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a courtesy call from the State Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Dragoljuba Bencina.

During the friendly talks, they noted to mutual satisfaction that an intensive dynamic of meetings between the officials of the two countries had been achieved in the previous period, and that their bilateral relations were developed, serving as an example of the good cooperation, especially in the regional framework.

While reflecting on the overall relations, Minister Dacic emphasized the priority significance of continuing the practice of holding joint sessions of the Governments of Serbia and Slovenia, which would contribute to deepening the comprehensive cooperation.

The cooperation between the two respective Ministries was commended in particular, with expectations that it would continue in the future.
