

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met today with the Ambassador of the Republic of Italy in Belgrade, Giuseppe Manzo.

In today's meeting, Minister Dacic emphasized the significance of the Republic of Italy's support to the Republic of Serbia's European integration process. They also discussed the possibilities of improving the bilateral cooperation between the two countries.

During the talks, they expressed mutual satisfaction with the high level of bilateral relations and economic cooperation.