

The delegations of the Serbian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Unification of the Republic of Korea met today at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia.

The delegation of the Serbian Foreign Ministry was led by the Director of the Department for Neighbouring and South-East European Countries, Ambassador Slobodan Vukcevic, while the delegation of the Republic of Korea was headed by Senior Representative for inter-Korean Dialogue Kim Eui-Do.

The talks included an exchange of views on issues concerning bilateral cooperation between the Republic of Serbia and the countries from its region, with particular emphasis on the former Yugoslavia region, as well as the current political situation in the Korean Peninsula.

Furthermore, both sides noted that the bilateral relations between the Republic of Serbia and the Republic of Korea were good and were expected to develop successfully in the coming period as well.
