

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a farewell call from the Ambassador of the Hellenic Republic to the Republic of Serbia, H.E. Kostantinos Ikonomidis.

On this occasion, Minister Dacic expressed his sincere gratitude to Ambassador Ikonomidis for the exceptional and cordial cooperation that they had during the Ambassador's term of office in the Republic of Serbia.

During the talks, it was jointly underlined that the relations between our two countries were traditionally good and friendly, and that they would continue to develop positively in the future as well. It was stated that there was a shared interest in the further strengthening of bilateral cooperation in all fields.

Ambassador Ikonomidis reiterated the strong support of the Hellenic Republic to the European integration process of our country, and wished the Republic of Serbia every success on its European path.
