

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic said that today's statements by war criminal Branimir Glavas were a culmination of the political madness in Croatia.

"A man convicted of murders of Serb civilians, a man glorifying the Nazi Ustasha-run NDH, Pavelic and Stepinac, a man glorifying the Ustasha terrorist Baresic, is accusing Serbia of neo-fascism, calling impudence Serbia's opposition to the rehabilitation of fascism and Ustashism.

The annulment of the verdict to Glavas is a clear message that it is possible to kill and harass Serbs with impunity. Serbia will never accept that. War criminals around the world are placed behind bars, it is only in Croatia that they are in front of newscasters' cameras and microphones."
