

In the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia, Secretary General of the Ministry and authorized representative of the Republic of Serbia in the Joint Committee for Succession of Diplomatic and Consular Property of the Former SFRY Veljko Odalovic met today with Secretary General of the Foreign Ministry of Slovenia and authorized representative of the Republic of Slovenia in the Joint Committee for Succession of Diplomatic and Consular Property of the Former SFRY Stanislav Vidovic.

The subject of the meeting was the continuation of the regular practice of bilateral consultations concerning the implementation of Annex B to the Agreement on Succession Issues.

A number of current issues in the process of distribution of diplomatic and consular property of the former SFRY was reviewed at the meeting, during which special attention was paid to the handover of certain properties owned by the former SFRY and which, by previous agreement of the successor states, were allocated to the Republic of Slovenia, and to the organization of the next meeting of the Joint Committee for Succession of Diplomatic and Consular Property of the Former SFRY.
