

The Secretary General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia, Veljko Odalovic, received today the delegation of the Ministry of Trade of the People's Republic of China and representatives of the Economy/Trade Section of the Embassy of the PR of China in Belgrade.

The Chinese Delegation's visit to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs was organized in the framework of visits to Serbian institutions which received donations of office and IT equipment from the PR of China.

MFA Secretary General Veljko Odalovic underlined the importance Serbia attaches to its relations with the PR of China, expressing particular gratitude for Chinese support and grant aid in IT equipment received, on several occasions, by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and other state institutions of the Republic of Serbia.
