

"Everything reported on what Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic retorted to Hashim Taci at the Brdo-Brioni Process Summit, in Slovenia, is true, which I can vouch myself.

The Summit unfolded in a decent atmosphere until Taci took the floor, whereby Kosovo Albanians demonstrated again, as at any other meeting, that the only policy known to them was to attack Serbia and tell lies. In this way, they revealed their nervousness and anger, for they currently enjoy hardly any support except for the last vestiges of the former US Administration and Albanian lobbyists.

It was a disgrace to hear Taci's gross lie that Greater Albania was Belgrade's fabrication, although the entire world could hear his own, Rama's, Haradinaj's and Musliu's statements on Greater Albania running all the way to Nis. Such conduct on the part of Taci was later condemned by everyone during the bilateral talks, including those with Presidents of Germany and Macedonia.

Aleksandar Vucic gave them a lecture in statesmanship, bringing to their attention that Serbia is in favour of peace, stability and reconciliation, but that no humiliation of Serbia will be allowed. This is Serbia's great political capital acquired by election of Vucic as President", stated Acting Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic.
