

Acting Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic congratulated today Ramadan Bayram to Grand Mufti of the Islamic Community of Serbia Sead Nasufovic, President of the Meshihat of the Islamic Community Mufti Mevlud Dudic, and all Serbian citizens of the Islamic faith.

"On behalf of the Government of the Republic of Serbia and on my own behalf, it is my pleasure to congratulate you on Ramadan Bayram, wishing you to spend it in peace, tranquillity and joy in the company of your loved ones.

May the coming days of celebration remind us that it is only together that we can find the strength and understanding to address the challenges facing our community and state.

I want us to build together a community and society free of prejudice, a community which respects and embraces diversity, for the knowledge and respect of differences between us is what enriches our spirit and empowers us.

May the upcoming holidays bring us all good health, joy, happiness to our families, but also wisdom to jointly respond to the challenges of our times", says the congratulatory message by Minister Dacic.
