

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic offered his condolences to the family of late Ljubisa Samardzic.

"Please accept my heartfelt condolences at the passing of your husband and father, Ljubisa – the legend of Serbian and Yugoslav cinematography.

His talent and unique features stole the hearts of massive audience across the former Yugoslavia.

Ljubisa always put his heart and true emotions into his work, and many generations have grown up watching his unforgettable roles. He will therefore be revered forever.

On the personal note, I will always remember him as a friend, respectful and ready to offer assistance and support even at the most difficult times. I am sure that he will be remembered the same way by Serbia, too", reads the condolence letter from Minister Dacic.
