

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic addressed a letter of condolences to Mr. Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Cuba, following the tragic human toll taken by the tropical storm caused by Hurricane Irma.

"Following the tragic toll on human life and material damage suffered by your country hit by Hurricane Irma, on behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and on my own behalf, please accept the expressions of sincere and most profound condolences.

The nature has once again demonstrated its power, reminding us all that that we need to take care of it through joint efforts, helping each other.

May I kindly ask you to convey to the families of the victims and those affected sincere sympathy of the people of the Republic of Serbia. Although our countries are far apart, Serbia is a true friend and a reliable partner of the brotherly Cuba, ready to help to the best of its abilities", says the letter of condolences from Minister Dacic.
