

State Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Toncev attended today in Dimitrovgrad a formal ceremony of unveiling the bust of Hristo Botev.

The bust was unveiled by Bulgaria's Vice President Iliana Iotova and by Mr. Nikola Selakovic, Envoy of the President of the Republic of Serbia.

MFA State Secretary Ivica Toncev had separate talks with the Bulgarian Vice President. The collocutors discussed the bilateral relations between the two countries and modalities to promote cooperation in the areas of mutual interest, primarily in economy, transport, infrastructure, tourism and culture.
