

Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivan Mrkic will visit the Republic of Croatia on 4 March, at the invitation of the First Vice-President of the Government and Minister of Foreign and European Affairs of Croatia Vesna Pusic.

Minister Mrkic will be received by Croatian President Ivo Josipovic and Speaker of the Croatian Parliament Josip Leko.

Minister Mrkic's visit to Zagreb comes as a result of an agreement reached following a series of meetings with his Croatian counterpart Pusic, and the mutually reaffirmed readiness to have Serbia and Croatia settle outstanding problems between them, enhance their economic and cross-border cooperation, share experiences in European integration and strengthen relations between the two countries, for the benefit of their citizens.
