

The joint meeting of the Governments of Italy and Serbia started in Ancona at 10 a.m. Prime Ministers of Italy and Serbia, Ivica Dacic and Enrico Letta chair the third Serbia-Italy summit.

The Foreign and Interior Ministers of the two countries, as well as Ministers of Justice, Defense, Economy, Transportation and Education participate in the joint meeting.

On the eve of the summit, Dacic assessed that the relations between the two countries were excellent, and that Italy was one of the most important economic and political partners of Serbia.

Serbia is ready to develop its cooperation with Italy in accordance with the strategic agreement of November 2009. "Italy provides constant support to Serbia's European path", Dacic said, pinning hopes in Rome's support and in promoting the changed image of Serbia abroad.

Ancona – Presentation of Delegations

{youtube}j4ucl8gkPM8{/youtube}

Plenary meeting of the delegations of Serbia and Italy

{youtube}iacMH5BF770{/youtube}

Meeting in Ancona: Four Agreements signed

{youtube}bXC05iBkqm0{/youtube}