

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic welcomed today, at Nikola Tesla Airport, President of the Republic of Cyprus Nicos Anastasiades, who is on a two-day official visit to Serbia at the invitation of President of the Republic of Serbia Aleksandar Vucic.

Minister Dacic wished a warm welcome to President Nicos Anastasiades, expressing his deep pleasure that this visit was realised.

The President of the Republic of Cyprus and Serbian officials will have talks on bilateral cooperation, Serbian European integration, Brussels dialogue and on the current developments in the Western Balkans.