

During his official visit to Mozambique, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met with Mr. Roque Silva, Secretary General of the FRELIMO leading party (Mozambique Liberation Front).

In a friendly and cordial talks, the two collocutors exchanged views on the most important internal political processes and foreign policy priorities of the two countries and agreed on the necessity of developing inter-party cooperation with a view to promoting cooperation and mutual support between the two states in all areas of shared interest.