

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a farewell call from the Ambassador of the Republic of Korea in the Republic of Serbia, Mr. Joo Dae Jong.

On the occasion, Minister Dacic thanked Ambassador Joo for a very successful and dynamic cooperation during his term in Belgrade.

During the conversation, both sides noted the friendly and highly developed bilateral relations, and a strong interest in their further enhancement. Particular emphasis was laid on the significant potential for economic cooperation between the two countries, as well as multiple investment opportunities for Korean companies in Serbia.

The Ambassador of the Republic of Korea thanked Minister Dacic for the warm reception and excellent cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and other institutions of the Republic of Serbia.

It was jointly noted that all conditions were in place for intensifying political dialogue and promoting bilateral cooperation between the two countries in all areas.
