

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today the Minister of Finance of the Republic of Surinam, Gillmore Hoefdraad, who is visiting the Republic of Serbia.

In a cordial conversation, the two sides confirmed the very friendly relations existing between Serbia and Surinam, expressing readiness to continue to work on promoting bilateral cooperation in the fields of economy, agriculture, information, IT, youth and sports, education, including all other areas of common interest.

Today's meeting particularly underlined readiness to further strengthen high-level political dialogue.