

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a farewell call from the Ambassador of the Kingdom of Belgium in the Republic of Serbia, Leo D'aes.

Both sides confirmed that bilateral relations between Serbia and Belgium were good, but that the cooperation could be intensified in all areas.

Minister Dacic thanked Ambassador D'aes for the good cooperation and for his personal contribution to the advancement of bilateral relations between Serbia and Belgium. He underlined in particular that during the Ambassador's term the political dialogue had been intensified.

Minister Dacic also thanked for the support Belgium lent to Serbia in the European integration process. Ambassador D'aes stressed that Belgium would continue to extend such support.

Ambassador D'aes thanked Minister Dacic for the excellent and close cooperation he had with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia.
